Question 1

Which chapter of the novel do you find the most interesting? Is it Mole and Ratty's trip to the Wild Woods, or the friends fighting side by side to reclaim Toad Hall? Describe the plot and explain the reason.

Question 2

Which animal character do you think is most like you or someone you know? Is it the wise Badger, the friendly and home-loving Rat, or any other character like Toad, Mole, or Otter? How do their actions or personality traits remind you of yourself or that person?

Question 3

Imagine you are a friend of Toad. He's not a bad person, but his pride and irresponsibility often gets him into trouble. How would you help him change? Describe what you would do to help Toad, and explain why you think it would work.

Question 4

Ratty finds peace messing about in boats on the river, and Badger enjoys the comfort of his home. What is a place or activity where you feel most relaxed and content? For example, do you prefer spending time with friends in a café or reading in your room? Explain your choice.

Question 5

"The Wind in the Willows" shows a deep love for nature with vivid descriptions, like the lively river and the whispering wind. How do you feel about nature? Are you a nature lover? Does the novel make you appreciate nature more?
